So in spite of that sin, and in the very midst of it, God promised that He would never again wipe out humanity as He did in the flood. There would be individual judgment and collective judgment on certain groups, but never again the smiting of every living thing. Thus, He set men free from the terror which nust have now been in their hearts. The beautiful rainbow in the cloud became a token of God's promise, and the visible assurance to "all lesh" that the judgment of the flood would not be repeated.
